

Capabilities Statement

PROFILE

Richard Grubb & Associates (RGA): We are professionals in Archaeology, History, Architectural History and Cemetery Conservation. Since 1988, RGA has successfully completed thousands of projects directly for or involving federal and state agencies and municipalities. Need a cultural resources study? No problem: we have successfully completed over 7,500. Our highly experienced staff excels at accomplishing challenging goals; they have long-standing relationships with agency reviewers and are known and trusted by the agencies that matter. That's why clients keep coming back to us – they feel certain we will deliver. Our 34 archaeologists and 17 architectural historians and historians, including in-house GIS specialists, zooarchaeologists, bioarchaeologists, geoarchaeologists, cemetery conservators, and drone pilots will keep you on track.
